

UNIVERSITY OF PRISHTINA
FACULTY OF LAW

24-27 July 2024, Nuremberg (Germany)

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Faculty of Law (UP) is calling all the students interested in the field of International Criminal Law, to apply for the Nuremberg Moot Court competition.

Nuremberg Moot Court 2024

The Nuremberg Moot Court is an international competition, held in English in Nuremberg, Germany. University/Faculty Law teams from all over the world are invited to argue a fictitious case before the "International Criminal Court" during a three-day competition. After the submission of their written memoranda, the teams will plead before the "ICC Pre-Trial Chamber". Dissecting complex issues of international criminal law, students will test their advocacy skills before a bench of highly esteemed professionals, such as national and international judges, academics, and other legal practitioners.

The Nuremberg Moot Court 2024, will take place in Nuremberg between 24-27 July 2024. For more information, see also: <https://www.nuremberg-moot.de/index.php?id=283>

REQUIREMENTS:

Interested students are expected to have:

- a high proficiency in written and spoken English,
- good research and writing skills for legal analyses, and a team-oriented mindset.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

If you think you fulfill all the above-mentioned requirements, do not hesitate to submit your CV and a Motivation Letter, by no later than 18th of January 2024, to the e-mail address: nurembergmootcourt@uni-pr.edu.

Only short-listed candidates will be invited to an interview.
